XinCheJian Community Membership

xinchejian.com, info@xinchejian.com, March 2011

Why become a member of the XinCheJian community?

- An international online and offline community full of opportunities and help to enrich yourself;

- Visibility for you, your skills and your projects;

- Use of the mechanical tools, electronics tools and Internet access in the space;

- Plenty of work space and storage space in a safe work environment;

- Free pool of small parts (resistors, transistors, logic components, etc);

- Free participation to XinCheJian events, hosted talks, conferences and workshops;

- Opportunity to bulk order through our purchasing department (aka Min Lin Hsieh!);

- A say in the future of the community through our monthly members-only meeting.

We need your help! (proposed minimal contribution[1] options)

- Weekend member: 500 RMB per person per month (Friday evening, Saturday and Sunday);

- Startup member: 1200 RMB per person per month for all week access;

- Corporate member: 5000 RMB per company per month for all employees, sporadic access;

- Hourly: 60 RMB per hour;

- Event: 500 RMB per hour;

- Get started: 300 RMB Arduino Uno Starter Kit (with servo, infrared sensor, breadboard, ...);

- Same rate as per person for multi-person teams participating in competitions for XinCheJian;

- For every 100 RMB ordered from our partners Seeedstudio (seeedstudio.com) and FlamingoEDA (flamingoeda.com) through XinCheJian, get 20 RMB off membership!

No Money? No problem!

Get monthly membership equivalents by volunteering in building the XinCheJian community:

- Raise money from teaching classes or organizing workshops for non-members;

- Find company sponsorships for XinCheJian or win prizes for XinCheJian in competitions;

- Provide professional services (media production, admin support, translation... at market rate);

- Donate tools, hardware, software, furniture, etc.
